

An Invitation to Young Musicians from the Saskatoon Youth Orchestra

Join us for a FREE lesson with an instrument specialist and the opportunity to play in the orchestra

The Saskatoon Youth Orchestra invites young musicians who play orchestral instruments to join them for a free lesson with one of our music specialists and the opportunity to play with the orchestra on the afternoon of Saturday, October 24, 2009.

Players of flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, French horn, trumpet, trombone, tuba, percussion, violin, viola, cello, double bass and harp are invited to call 955-6336 or email syo@sasktel.net to make a reservation.

There are a limited number of spots available for each instrument. This opportunity is offered to serious students who have at least two years experience on their instrument and who are interested in playing in an orchestra. This program is not for beginners.

There is no charge for this event, which runs from 1:00 until 4:00 p.m. on Saturday, October 24 in Hordern Hall at Aden Bowman Collegiate.

The Saskatoon Youth Orchestra has won six consecutive national performance awards and maintains a busy season of workshops and concerts. The orchestra serves musicians from Saskatoon and several communities around the city. In addition to the orchestra itself the organization includes the Saskatoon Strings for developing string players and a double bass program.

Call 955-6336 for more information.
